

Everlasting HOPE

Dear Friend:

ISAIAH 40:31

Have you ever felt as though life was coming at you in all directions? I know I have.

Sometimes life is just plain hard. Dealing with job loss. Death of a loved one. Marital difficulties. Divorce. Problems with teens. One of my favorite Bible teachers, Beth Moore, shared that "The titanic temptation in a storm is to give way to it... but the point of every perfect storm is to see that the work of God through us is unhindered." I know that I want His work to be unhindered. So by trusting in Him, because He is my source of hope, I can face life's thunder.

Do you want to live a life that overflows with the confident hope through Christ's power? This year's Extraordinary Women tour is about everlasting hope and recovering your strength in the Lord.

Imagine you, God, and thousands of women joining together to brave life's storms; find hope, joy, and contentment; and grow more in Him. Together, we can encourage one another through the power of the Holy Spirit to be confident in the everlasting hope He provides.

Join fabulous speakers, artists, authors and thousands of women for inspiring messages and authentic worship. Living God's dream for your life is about trusting in Him and embracing everlasting hope.

Blessings,
